

2013 Summer Study Abroad Program: International Consulting Practicum in Campeche, Mexico

1st Summer Session

"The tourism practicum is the MBA experience that every business school talks about, but very few students actually experience: the opportunity to work as a consultant and project manager for a real-world international client...your knowledge and teamwork skills are stretched to the limit, resulting in the most intensive learning environment you will ever have as a graduate student." Robert Cosentino, MBA Graduate, Practicum in Panama

Information Sessions:

Wednesday, 1/23, at 1:00pm in

Funger 320

Thursday, 1/24, at 5:30pm in

Duques 357

All interested students must register no later than February 15, 2013 for the 6 credit hour course series listed below:

- TSTD 6214 Consultative Processes: Tuesdays and Thursdays 6:10-9:05pm, May 21--June 9 and June 25--June 29, 2013(first summer session)
- TSTD 6282 International Experience: Overseas Dates: June 09 - 22, 2013

*Students must submit completed applications and arrange for a short personal interview with Dr. Lamoureux by February 15, 2013.

If you are interested in applying or if you need further information, contact Dr. Kristin Lamoureux at klam@gwu.edu

The courses are for graduate students ONLY and permission of the instructor is required.

For further information on the Master of Tourism Administration Program, go to business.gwu.edu/tourism