Draft Schedule Overview - 2017

TSTD 6282 International Experiences includes an estimated 90 hours of supervised student field studies and 40 contact hours with GW Faculty professor described below:

June 18: Arrival - Havana: general orientation, and safety and security briefing by Instructors and local security officials - 2 hours: 2:00 – 4:00 PM. City Tour.

June 19: Preparation for inception report presentation - 3 hours: 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM. Inception presentation - 2 hours: 1:00 - 3:00 PM. Team meeting, discussion and feedback with client - 2 hours: 4:00 - 6:00 PM.

June 20-22: Rapid assessment fieldwork with local stakeholders. Evening guided discussions on assessment issues directed by GW and local faculty and involving guest lecturers - 21 hours: 7 hours per day including evening discussion.

June 23: Sustainable Tourism Diagnostic Workshop Facilitated by GW Faculty - 4 hours: 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM. Crafting key inputs for final report – 2 hours: 3:00 – 5:00 PM.

June 24: No activities scheduled. Open day for students.

June 25: Educational tour to Viñales Valley - 6 hours: 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM.

June 26-27: Data collection process guided by GW Faculty - 6 hours: 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM; and 2:00 – 5:00 PM. Evening guided discussions on findings – 1 hour: 7:00 – 8:00 PM.

June 28-29: Student teams formulate findings and recommendations, including preparing a Power Point presentation for the client - 16 hours: 8 hours each day.

June 30: Preparation of final presentation - 3 hours: 9:00 – 12:00 PM. Presentation to the client and debriefing with client - 3 hours: 1:00 – 4:00 PM.

July 1: Departure